

Scarred4Life Sahara Rally
July 2007

Charity Party

On day 8 of the rally, as the culminating event in Tangier, there will be a sumptuous charity party (ball), taking place at The Miramonte hotel complex. This will be attended by many of the cream of Moroccan society and will be a fabulous event in its own right.

The Miramonte is set high on the hillside, overlooking the bay of Tangier. It is particularly convenient for the rally since it provides ample car parking spaces, camping facilities, hotel accommodation and fine Moroccan/French food.

The party itself will take place around the largest of the three open air swimming pools, which boasts fountains, a Jacuzzi as well as bistro style seating with fabulous views.

The dress code will be 'smart'. In addition, swim wear could be handy, since the pools are open all night.

Guideline prices for the camping and hotel as follows. (Prior booking available via Karl of Scarred4Life)

Camping, per person (adult) 20dh per night (approx £1.40); tent 20dh per night; car 15dh per night (£1.00); van 20dh per night.

Hotel: twin-bedded room 200dh-400dh per night (£13-£26); studio 400dh per night (£26); bungalow 1,000dh per night (£65).
